

CHAMPION HIGH JUMPER AND HIS BRIDE

Dr. Edward Beeson, World's Champion High Jumper, and His Bride.

San Francisco, Cal.—Culmination of a high school romance came here recently when Dr. Edward Beeson, champion high jumper of the world, married Bera B. Mothorn of Healdsburg, Cal. The couple attended the Healdsburg high school together.

Dr. Beeson as a representative of the Olympic Club broke the world's record for the running high jump at the fifth annual Pacific Coast Conference at Berkeley recently. He cleared the bar at six feet seven and five-sixteenth inches, taking the championship away from Geo. Horina, formerly of Stanford.

Mrs. Beeson is a graduate of Mills College, the "Vassar of the West."

Dr. Beeson graduated from the University of California with the class of 1913.

The newlyweds will reside in this city.

Ambassador Da Gama boasts that mediation has prevented war between Mexico and the U. S. But, doggone it, nobody has saluted the flag!